

GPS INFORMATION PRIVACY POLICY January 2018

This privacy policy sets out how Mongoose (Mongoose Australia PTY Ltd and Mongoose New Zealand Ltd) uses and protects any information that is provided by you or from products provided by Mongoose to you.

Mongoose is committed to ensuring that your privacy is protected. If we ask you to provide any information by which you could be identified when using this website, then we assure you that the information will only be used in accordance with this privacy statement.

Mongoose reserves the right to amend this policy. Revisions will be published on this page.

What we collect.

We may collect the following information:

Name, title, job title, contact information including email address, street address, postcode, phone numbers (business and/or personal), vehicle make & model, registration number, staff names and any other relevant information.

What we do with the information we gather.

We require this information to ensure the product(s) supplied by Mongoose meet your requirements by understanding your needs.

We use this information to ensure that the product operates correctly and that you have easy access to the information the product provides.

We may internally use the information to improve our products and services.

We may at times send you emails about new products or product information which we think may be of interest to you. You can opt out of receiving emails at any time by selecting 'unsubscribe' from the email sent.

If we would like to use your information for market research or to make improvements to our products and/or services, we will contact you to request your permission.

We do not share, in any form, your business and/or personal information with third parties.

Mongoose staff keep all information confidential and is not used by them other than for the business of Mongoose and you our customer.

Internet Cookies - Cookies are stored on your computer after you have closed your web browser which allows your preferences on websites to be remembered. These cookies are used for a variety of purposes, for example, remembering your username, passwords and your preferences on a website.

You have the ability to accept or decline cookies through your web browser, but please be aware that some parts of our website require cookies to work properly.

Where you are given a choice of remembering usernames, IMEI numbers and passwords we advise that you decline if you wish your logon to be confidential.
